

The National Air Disaster Alliance will go on record to recommend full time fuel tank inerting as a rule on production and new aircraft. SFAR88 should be applicable to non production aircraft only.